Elixir Consulting appoints new Consultant in South Australia.

Elixir Consulting has appointed Sue-Ann Charlton as a Business Coach, servicing clients in Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth. Elixir Managing Director Sue Viskovic said "At a time where we are experiencing a significant increase in demand for our coaching, speaking and dealer services, Sue-Ann is a fantastic and very welcome addition to the team."

SueAnn has worked in Financial Services since 1988, in roles including Region Leader of Financial Advice for Mercer in Australia, where she coached teams of Advisers in delivery of advice, and business acumen, and more recently headed up part of the operations business for BT Financial Group (including Asgard).

"SueAnn is a gifted communicator and has a great deal of experience in coaching advisers through cultural change to assist them to achieve greater results for themselves and their clients", explained Mrs Viskovic. "At a time when many advisers are being forced into changing their business models, we have seen a dramatic increase in demand from advisers and licensees who are keen to invest in the right kind of support to assist them to rebuild their business and secure their future in the advice profession."

Elixir Consulting is a national business with five Consultants who deliver business coaching and practice development services to clients in every state in Australia.
